

The Human Condition

Name:

Idea #1- In the space below, describe the words you are trying to illustrate in your photograph, and the concept that will link the two photographs together:

Sketch – In the two squares below, sketch out what you have in your imagination for your two images. Stick figures are fine, but placement and composition are very important:

